

Ten Commandments Left by the class of 1915
to the Lehi High School
From the 1915 Yearbook

- 1. Remember Senior Dignity and keep it Sacred.
- 2. Thou shalt not take the name of thy teacher in vain.
- 3. Five days shalt thou go to school but the sixth and seventh thou shalt do anything thou pleaseth.
- 4. Honor thy teachers that thy days may be long in the High School and thou mayest be spared a Spring Vacation.
- 5. Thou shalt not “fuss” in the study room nor in public places.
- 6. Thou shalt not run away on April fools or May First; Remember our precedents.
- 7. Thou shalt not have flag rushes with the Seniors on the belfry.
- 8. Thou shalt not sluff thy study period; the Banks are guarding thee.
- 9. Thy teachers shalt flunk thee unless thou repentest of thy sins-and remove “conditions”.
- 10. Thou shalt love the Seniors as thyself.